Order

Respondent Hatch Auction, Inc., DBA Cow House Auction, its officers, directors, agents and employees, successor and assigns; and respondent Raymond L. Hatch, his agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with Respondents' activities subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, shall cease and desist from:

1. Failing to deposit in their custodial account for shippers' proceeds, within the time prescribed by section 201.42 (9 C.F.R. § 201.42), an amount equal to the proceeds receivable from the purchase by respondents and others of livestock consigned to the corporate respondent for sale on a commission basis; and

2. Failing to otherwise maintain their custodial account for shippers' proceeds in conformity with the provisions of section 201.42 of the regulations (9 C.F.R. § 201.42).

Respondents Hatch Auction, Inc., DBA Cow House Auction, and Raymond L. Hatch, their agents and employees, directly or through any corporate or other device, in connection with Respondents' activities subject to the Packers and Stockyards Act, shall cease and desist from failing to keep and maintain records which fully and correctly discloses all the transactions involved in its business as a market agency as required by section 401 of the Act (7 U.S.C. § 221). Specifically, respondents shall keep and maintain all purchase and sale invoices, balance sheets, income statements, monthly reconciliations and all other documents that permit the tracing of all payments made for livestock and that would fully and correctly disclosed all transactions involved in their business as a market agency.
Respondent Hatch Auction, Inc., DBA Cow House Auction is suspended as a registrant under the Act for a period of thirty (30) days and thereafter until it demonstrates that the shortage in its Custodial Account for Shippers' Proceeds has been eliminated. When respondent Hatch Auction, Inc., DBA Cow House Auction demonstrates that the shortage in the Custodial Account for Shippers' Proceeds has been eliminated, a supplemental order will be issued in this proceeding terminating the suspension after the expiration of the thirty day period.

The provisions of this Order shall become effective upon service on the Respondents.

Copies of this Decision and Order shall be served on the parties.
